Brooklyn Couple Married at Her Sick Mother's Bedside and Then Went to a Hotel-He Forgot to Register His Wife and Thrashed Clerk Who Invaded Room.

Miss Ella Adele Peck and Frank W. Primwere married early Sunday morning the bedside of the dying mother of the ing bride at 403 Monroe street, Brook-The couple then left for a short honeyoon, going to the St. George Hotel in Clark street. Here the bridegroom forgot to register his newly made bride, was orout of the hotel and finally, after thrashing the hotel clerk, was placed under

Until her husband was released on parole granted by Magistrate Dooley in the Adams street court, the young wife stuck close to him and did not learn until hours afterward that her mother had died in her ab-

Young Primrose was seen at the home of the bride's father last night. He had been out for a walk with his wife and was ery indignant at the stories that had been ated concerning his trouble at the St. George Hotel on Sunday morning. He arrived in town early in the day, and the St. George and registered. er I visited my wife, and we arranged to go to the theatre in the evening. We ecided to get married after the theatre, and sent word to two of our friends, who agreed to stand up with us. After the remony the whole party went to the St. George, where it was proposed that we said the house was full and that our friends d not have a room.

My wife and I went to our room. After short time the clerk sent the porter to the room with the message that I had failed register my wife. I sent the porter to If the clerk that it was up to him to come n here himself if he had anything to say me and not send a porter. The clerk came up and used insulting language to me in the presence of my wife, insulted her and after I had warned him repeated the offence, and it was then that I knocked him down. I was then allowed to sleep the rest of the night, properly guarded I supposed, and was arrested in the morning on a war-rant. That is the true story of the case." At the St. George Hotel the clerk, Claude pulse, said that he had called the attention I Primrose to the fact that he had failed of Pinness to the mane in the register. He said that he "didn't like the looks of the other two" and had refused to give the last painting upon which he was them a room, saying the house was full.

In court Primrose pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault, asserting that the clerk had no right to intrude upon him in the young bride, whose death followed within a few hours the marriage of her daughter, was the wife of William C. Peck.

was the wife of William C. Peck.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. C. P. Rhoades, pastor of the Marey Avenue Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Primrose have attended the Sunday school of that church. In the notices sent to the Brooklyn papers it would appear that the marriage and the death both occurred on Sunday. Mrs. Peck died shortly after 8 o'clock in the morning. The young couple were then at the St. George Hotel. Mr. Primrose told a reporter for The St. last night that the marriage took place after the theatre and a dinner party at a after the theatre and a dinner party at a after the theatre and a dinner party at a nearby restaurant.

The wedding, therefore, must have been between midnight and 2 o'clock, because the party left the house after the wedding and again had a supper at a restaurant, and proceeded to the St. George, arriving there, according to the clerk, between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning.

The funeral services over the body of Mrs. Peck will be held this afternoon. The hearing in the case of young Mr. Primrose will be in the Adams street court on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

he never had known him to be guilty of but one crime, that of minding his own business. 'And it's a very un-American crime,' added the Bishop. He went on:

"I never have had to write you an unpleasant letter, as I have to some of the clergy. I remember once being in a country house and asking the stenographer of the man with whom I stopped, a very pretty girl, to transcribe a letter for me. The letter was one in which I literally took off the skin in strips from a young clergyman. When I had finished dictating it, I apologized to the young lady for the unpleasant task, and added incidentially that I did not know the young cleric's address.

"I know,' she said, as she burst into

Then on behalf of the congregation the Rishop presented the Rev. Mr. Wittmeyer with an elaborate silver dining service.

Afterward the rector expressed his thanks to Bishop and Mrs. Potter and the congregation. He did it in French. He told the Bishop of a newly established charity at the church. Forty to fifty homeless men, a very small percentage of whom are trained as welcomed of the congregation of the colorado.

The Weather.

The ligh pressure area central over the Lake tregions yesterday shut colder weather the colorado will take command of the Department of the Colorado.

The Weather.

LOW TAKES HIMSELF OUT.

He Announces That He Will Not Run for Mayor on the Odell Ticket.

Ex-Mayor Seth Low didn't wait a day, the ing formally and authoritatively that that he was not and would not be a party to it. He issued the following statement: So far as I am aware there is no basis for the article in question, but it may simplify the problem of those who are concerned with this subject if I say that under

This makes two, Jacob H. Schiff and Mr. Low, who have already declined to become the Odell candidate for Mayor. The situation has narrowed down to Louis Stern or County Clerk Thomas L. Hamllton, with an occasional thought of Timothy | west and fair in cast portion, rain or snow to mort. Woodruff of Brooklyn.

THE

COMPANY

JOHN TATLOCK, PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON LIFE INSURANCE

141 Broadway New York

ASSETS $17,500,000

HON. CHARLES H. ALLEN

Modern Policy Contracts with guaranteed surrender values and all approved privileges to the insured.

THEODORE T. JOHNSON

Productive territory with remunerative contracts can be allotted to reputable and successful Agents. (Extract from Report of the Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York.)

' The Department is satisfied that it is the aim of the new management to conduct all the branches of the business of this company in such a manner as to fulfill beyond peradventure the contracts entered into with its policy-holders and to use all legitimate means to the end that such contracts may be secured by the policy-holders at a cost to themselves fairly comparable with the cost of insurance in other approved companies. The Department can state that the new management engages in the task set before it with absolute integrity of purpose and honesty in method and procedure, and fully believes that its plans and aims will result in maintaining this company in the position in which the forty-five years of its history justly entitle it to be placed.

FRANCIS HENDRICKS.

THE ART OF EDWIN LORD WEEKS. An Exhibition and Sale of the Late Painter's Works.

In the exhibition of the works of the American artist, Edwin Lord Weeks, now open at the American Art Galleries, there is a standing invitation to a very delightful morning or afternoon for the lover of paintings. Unfortunately the exhibition is very short, continuing only until the sale of the canvases and drawings at auction, which takes place on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. Besides the pictures by Mr. Weeks, the exhibition includes a miscellany of decorative objects from his studio, such as an artist is bound to acquire in the course of his wanderings, but in this case unusually specialized, the objects coming almost entirely from Persia. India and northern Africa, where Mr. Weeks travelled so ex-rivacy of his room.

Mrs. William Peck, the mother of the square, Mr. Weeks has produced a remarkable effect of a great flock of birds, feeding and in far flight, with little dabs of color which viewed close at hand mean nothing at all. But the impression conveyed at the proper distance is little less than wonderful, and is all but surprising in a man who accompanyable expenses.

would have found a worthy place in the Henry G. Marquand collection.

Changes in Military Department Commanders. WASHINGTON, March 13.-It has been announced that Major-Gen. Samuel S. When I had finished dictating it, I apologized to the young lady for the unpleasant task, and added incidentially that I did not know the young cleric's address.

"I know, the young cleric's address.

"I know, for I am engaged to him," there are some roses for Mrs. Wittmeyer," the Bishop added, "Mrs. Potter brought them. She's kind hearted, even if she as a Bishop's wife."

Then on behalf of the congregation the state of the Command to the Pacific division, in place of Majorden. MacArthur, who is in Manchuria observing the operations between the Russians and Japanese. Brig.-Gen. Funston, commanding the Department of California, to now in temporary command of the Pacific division. Brig.-Gen. F. B. Baldwin, becommanding the Department of the Colorado, will probably be assigned to command the pacific division of the Pacific division. Brig.-Gen. Funston, commanding the Department of the Colorado, will probably be assigned to command the pacific division of the Pacific division, in place of Majorden. MacArthur, who is in Manchuria observing the operations between the Russians and Japanese. Brig.-Gen. Funston, commanding the Department of California, the pacific division of the Pacific division, in place of Majorden. MacArthur, who is in Manchuria observing the operations between the Russians and Japanese. Brig.-Gen. Funston, commanding the Department of California, the pacific division of the Pacific division, in place of Majorden. MacArthur, who is in Manchuria observing the operations between the Russians and Japanese. Brig.-Gen. Funston, commanding the Department of California, the pacific division of the Pacific division. Brig.-Gen. Funston, commanding the Department of California, the pacific division of the Pacific division, in place of Majorden. MacArthur, who is in Manchuria observing the operations between the Russians and Japanese. Brig.-Gen. Funston, commanding the Department of California, the pacific division of the Pacific division of the Pacific division of the Pacific division of the Pacific division Sumner, commanding the Southwestern

The high pressure area central over the Lake regions yesterday shut colder weather into that section, the Atlantic coast States, the Ohio and Tennessee valleys, the lower Mississippi valley and the west Guif. The temperature rose in Kan-

The temperature was below freezing over the northern half of the country. In this city the day was fair and coider, wind fresh to brisk northwest:

e Odell scheme-as related by Odell's official thermometer, is shown in the annexed table:

friends in THE Sun yesterday—to nominate him for Mayor this fail wouldn't work; 12 M. 28* 27* 6 P. M. 33* 36* 12 Mid. 31* 28* 12 Mid. 31* 28* 12 Mid. 31* 28* The lowest temperature, 25°, at 6 A. M.

WASHINGTON FORECAST FOR TO DAY AND TO MORROW For eastern New York, Jair to-day, increasing rudiness to-morrow and probably rain or snow no conceivable conditions can I be induced again to enter the field of municipal politics as a candidate for Mayor. This is my attitude, and I cannot be induced to change it.

This makes two Leach H. Solik.

For New England, fair to-day; partly cloudy

CARS COLLIDE; MAN KILLED.

FOUR BADLY HURT, SIX OR EIGHT CUT AND BRUISED.

Madison Ave. Trolley Car, Slipping Down Grade From Broome Street, Crashes Into Grand St. Car at Centre St .- Platform Rider Rolled Under Fore Truck.

One man was killed last night and several were injured in a collision between a Grand street car and a Madison avenue car at Grand and Centre streets. The man who lost his life was identified late last night as Abraham Miller, 19 years old, 131 Clinton street, Man-hattan. The injured are: Max Silverman of 261 Henry street, Harry Leventhal of 331 East Twenty-third street, Samuel Gross of 7 Sheriff street and William McManagle of 338 East Thirty-fourth street. The last named was the driver of the Grand street tensively.

The 277 catalogue numbers comprise all the works left by Mr. Weeks, including the last painting upon which he was engaged.

In "Feeding the Pigeons — Jeypore. India" (248), where the Rajah daily causes hundreds of the birds to be fed in the palace square. Mr. Weeks has produced a remarkable effect of a great flock of birds, feeding and in far flight, with little dabs of color which viewed close at hand mean nothing at all. But the impression contributed in the palace of Motorman Isaac Miller of 136 Madison street and Conductor Patrick Kelly of 231 East 110th street.

Shortly after Motorman Miller swung his car into Centre street from Broome he saw the Grand street car then about to than wonderful, and is all but surprising in a man who so consummately executes intricate detail in his architectural canvases. Another Jeypore composition, "Elephants in the Market Place" (257), is an excellent painting; figures, some pigeons, the grouping of buildings and people, color, atmosphere, and the three superb beasts in rich trappings in the centre combining to make a picture of unmistakable power.

Fine expression and figure drawing characterize "Caravan Crossing the Desert" (266), perhaps suggesting Mr. Weeks's first master, Gérôme, but also, perhaps, explaining why he got away from G'rome and sought instruction elsewhere and a free play for his own vigorous ideas. The attruction of desolation, where man is overcoming it, appears again in "Persian"

N. Y. Presbytery Rejects Cumberland

Overture-Negro Question Figures. After giving five months consideration to the matter, the Presbytery of New York, to the matter, the Presbytery of New York, late vesterday afternoon, by a vote of 61 to 44, rejected the overture sent down to all the presbyteries by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church regarding union of the Presbyterian and the Cumberland Presbyterian Churches.

In the discussion it was made clear that the members of the local presbytery are in favor of union with the Cumberland Church, but feel that union is involved, under the plan now proposed, with the question of separate presbyteries for colored people, and there is enough of the old abolition blood in New York ministers to make a possible injustice to the colored man an insuperable bar to union, much as that may be desired.

An automobile coat of wolfskin, valued at $500, and a suit o and there is enough of the old abolition blood in New York ministers to make a possible injustice to the colored man an insuperable bar to union, much as that may be desired.

The presbytery's committee reported in the negative. The Rev. Dr. J. B. Devins, the chairman, said that in the Cumberland church thirty-six presbyteries have yound.

Church thirty-six presbyteries have voted to accept union with us if they do not want H. G. Miller, a colored pastor, was one of those who spoke against union, asking for consideration of the rights of his race.

The Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, one of the committee, dissented from its report.

The Presbytery of Brooklyn favors the union. Other presbyteries have taken the same stand as that of New York yesterday, their principal reasons being that the Cumberland Church, which is in large part a Southern body. Southern body, has separate presbyteries for colored churches. Although it is not referred to in the overture on union sent down by the General Assembly, another overture sent down at the same time permits such separate presbyteries in the Northern church. These are now prohibited by the laws of the (hurch

New Portrait of President Roosevelt, WASHINGTON, March 13 .- A three-quarter

Henry Clews Dines Andrew Carnegie.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clews gave a dinner last night at their home, 630 Fifth avenue, to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie. Covers were laid for twenty-four.

RAIDERS AT TOM O'ROURKE'S.

SLEUTHS KICK IN A DOOR AT THE DELEVAN HOUSE.

Twelve Meek Men Overawed by Guns of McLaughlin's Raiders-Racing Cards and Pocket Telephones as Handbook Evidence-Disappointed Crowd Melts.

Without a warrant and with little evidence that a misdemeanor was being committed, two of Inspector McLaughlin's men broke into a room in Tom O'Rourke's Delevan House, at Broadway and Fortieth street, yesterday and at the muzzle of their revolvers made six prisoners. The two reiders were Detectives O'Connor and

According to their story they have been camping on the trail of several handbook men who have been hanging around the Delevan corner. Yesterday they say they saw two of the men whom they had been watching go into the hotel and they followed them to a room on the first floor. The sleuths didn't try to get in after them, but waited around. Other men went into the same room in sufficient numbers to satisfy the detectives that there was something doing in the poolroom way.

Once a plain clothes man gets a suspicion of this kind he wants to batter down doors. That is what the two McLaughlin men did. When they were not admitted when they knocked, they used their heavy shoes to force their way in. They got in all right and found about twelve men in the room. They all looked like very bad gamblers, the raiders report. Six of the twelve were picked out as looking more like gamblers than the others, and these six were informed that they were prisoners. The rest were allowed to go, and they retreated in some

The raiders drew their revolvers as soon as they kicked in the door, but they never met a meeker lot of men than the twelve that confronted them. Not a soul made any protest at being arrested; not one of them cared to run chances with loaded revolvers in the hands of excited cops. So much noise had been made in kicking down the door that a crowd gathered in the street. In a very short time Fortieth street on the short block between Broadway and Seventh avenue was black with people. The crowd heard that some one had been shot in the hotel. When they learned it was only a little raid, most of the curious oners put in it. Then they were driven to the Tenderloin station. They gave the names of Steve Edwards, John Bowers. H. A. Rossiter, Joseph Purdell, Ralph Burs and Frank Martin. They were held on a charge of keeping and maintaining a gambling house.

charge of keeping and manuely gambling house.

The only evidence against them is a couple of racing cards and two pocket telephones that two of the prisoners car-last night. He would make no comment on the raid, but he looked as if he would like to. O'Rourke never likes to say any-thing about the police. The raid was made over the head of Capt. Cottrell of the

COP URGED HER TO PROSECUTE.

Arrest of Miss Wetman an Outrage. Nellie Wetman, 30 years old, of 62 West 107th street, who was arrested on Sunday ring from Mrs. James A. Bennett of 857 between midnight and 2 cidook, because the party left the house after the wedding and gain had a supper at a restaurant, there, according to the clerk, between 3 and a colock in the morning.

The fuperal services over the between 3 and a colock in the morning.

The fuperal services over the between 3 and a colock in the morning.

The fuperal services over the between 3 and a colock in the morning.

The fuperal services over the between 3 and a colock in the morning.

The fuperal services over the between 3 and a colock in the morning.

The fuperal services over the between 3 and a congretation of the fuperal services over the between 3 and a congretation of the fuperal services over the between 3 and a congretation of the fuperal services over the between 3 and a congretation of the fuperal services over the case of young Mr. Primare and a free play for his own vigorous ideas is a service of the fuperal services over the case of young Mr. Primare and a few play for his own vigorous ideas is a constant of the fuperal services over the case of young Mr. Primare and a few play for his own vigorous ideas is a constant of the fuperal services over the case of young Mr. Primare and a few play for his own vigorous ideas is a constant of the fuperal services over the case of young Mr. Primare and a few play for his own vigorous ideas in a constant of the fuperal services over the case of young Mr. Primare and a few play for his own vigorous ideas in a constant of the fuperal services over the case of young Mr. Primare and a few play for his own vigorous ideas in a fuperal services over the case of young Mr. Primare and a few play for his own vigorous ideas in a fuperal services over the case of young Mr. Primare and the fuperal services over the case of young and the case of young the fuperal services over the case of young and the fuperal services over the case of young the fuperal services over the case of young and the fuperal services over the Park avenue, Baltimore, was arraigned in the West Side court vesterday. Mrs. Ben-

AGAINST PRESBYTERIAN UNION. LOOT OF THE BROKAW HOUSE. $13,000 Worth of Property So Far Recovered From Pawnshops. An automobile coat of wolfskin, valued at

Short

Pot-still Scotch

The Whisky Supplied by Special Warrant of Appointment to the House of Lords. Now

On Broadway

The Scotch with the Pear-drop flavor At Clubs, Cafes, Hotels and of Dealers.

The Cook & Bernheimer Co., Soie Distributers.

66THE MAN ON THE BOX" "Wins in a Walk"

"'The Man on the Box' is the smartest novel of the season." - St. Paul Dispatch. "The Man on the Box' is vastly exciting-and, what is more, it turns out to the greatest satisfaction of all '-New York Times. "'The Man on the Box' will hold any audience breathless."-Atlanta Constitution. "The idea is novel, the situation ingenious and the humor bubbling."—San Francisco Call.

> Harold MacGrath, the Man Who Wrote "The Puppet Crown," Has Written This Year's Winner.

"THE MAN ON THE BOX"

ALL BOOKSELLERS NOW HAVE NEW SUPPLY.

THE BOBBS-MERRILL CO., Publishers.

SOLD LETTERS TO ROOSEVELT. WHEN ALFONSO VISITS PARIS. Accused by Immigrants.

Peter Varnoa, a Greek, who said he lived in Stamford, Conn., and who was once employed in the Immigration Bureau, was arraigned in the Tombs police court yesterday charged with swindling Greek Nicholas Flares of 103 Washington street Nicholas Flares of 103 Washington street was the spokesman. He said Varnoa rold him a letter of introduction, written on paper of the Tim Sullivan association, to President Roosevelt Another said Varnoa had sold him the privilege of selling peanuts and candy on the rear platforms of every street car in New York.

Magistrate Barlow held Varnoa in $500 bail for further examination to give the detectives time to select the best comblaint.

Increase in Grean Rates.

HEBER R. BISHOP'S WIDOW DEAD. Mother of Eight Children, All of Whom

Survive Her. Mary Cunningham Bishop, widow of Heber R. Bishop, who gave to the Metropolitan Museum his precious collection of jades, died yesterday at her home, S81 Fifth avenue. She was the daughter of James Cunningham of Irvington, and married Mr. Bishop in 1862. Her sister Jane married D. O. Mills. Mr. Bishop, who died in 1902, left his wife for life the house in which she lived and a third of his residuary estate; both, at her death, to fall into the trusts provided for the eight children. The children are Heber R. Bishop, James C. Francis C. and Ogden Mills, Bishop. Mary Cunningham Bishop, widow of

G. G. COCHRAN OF THE ERIE DEAD. Assistant to the President Operated On for Appendicitis. George G. Cochran, assistent to President Underwood of the Eric Railroad, died yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Gerard, 123 West Forty-fourth street after an opera-123 West Forty-fourth street after an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Cochran was born on Dec. 21, 1842, at Sandusky, Ohio. He entered the railway service in 1858, and worked his way up from a clerkship in the freight and traffic branches of the Atlantic and Great Western and the Erie. In 1902 he was made assistant to the president. He leaves a widow and one son. The funeral will be on Thursday from the residence of J. B. Cochran, 199 East Prospect street, Cleveland.

Oblinary Notes. The Rev. Lewis Grout, a retired Congre-gational minister, missionary to Natal for the Republican Club.

Major Edward Augustus Stoutenborou g a well known civil war veteran, son of i late William Stoutenborough, the piones wire manufacturer of the United State died Saturday night, at his home, 210 Propert place, Brooklyn, in his 77th year. Hearved through the war with the Nine teenth Regiment, New York Volynice and was one of the thirty-two survivors of the 1,000 men originally enlisted.

Annie Watson Haight, wife of Pales.

Annie Watson Haight, wife of Edward Haight of the Stock Exchange, died vester-day at her home, 43 East Fightleth street. Mrs. Haight had been an invalid for some time. She leaves two children, Mrs. William Rockwell and Louis Haight.

Also a Large Sized Peanut Privilege-Greek | Gala Nights at the Opera and a Banquet at the Flysce Palace. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

Paris, March 13 .- King Alfonso of Spain will arrive in Paris on May 30 and will make a stay of six days. A national demonstration will be made in his honor at Cherbourg. The programme of his entertainment in Paris includes gala nights at the

A banquet has been offered by the King

Increase in Ocean Rates.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, March 13.-The increase of transatlantic passenger rates of $5 in first class cabin and $2,50 in second class The Lucania Resumes Her Trip. Special Cable Despaich to THE SUN.

LONDON, March 13.—The Cunard liner

Lucania, which put back to Queenstown last night with her starboard hawsepipe broken, proceeded on her way to New York

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN.

THE PREMIER HONOR

THE WORLD-WIDE

Hunter Whiskey

PURITY, QUALITY AND FLAVOR, HAS BEEN JUSTLY AND APPRO-ST. LOUIS EXPOSITION BY THE

GRAND PRIZE AFTER A MOST CAREFUL CON-SIDERATION OF THE RELATIVE

MERITS OF ALL OTHER RYE

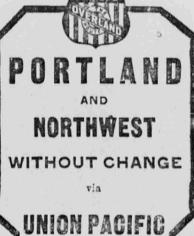

BRANDS EXHIBITED. TRANK MORA & C. H. ULRICH.
Representatives.
3 S. William St., New York, N. Y.

===MOHAIRS= "Will never lose their lustre." "Rain Will Not Spot Them." Come in Blacks, Colors, and Melangé effects. "R. Priesfley & Co." and "Cravenette" stamped on the wrong side. 2

British Army Estimates. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN LONDON, March 13.—The army estimates for the coming year amount to $149.065,000, an increase of $4,915,000, which is due to

March 1 to May 15, 1905.

Chicago $33.00 St.Louis 30.00

in the Northwest, from

TWO THROUGH TRAINS DAILY Popular Route to Lewis and Clark Exposition

June 1 to October 15, 1905.

R. TENBROECK, Gen'l Eastern Agent. 287 Broadway, New York City, New York

Distinctive Top Coats for Men Ready-for-Service.

Daring to do the logical thing when it suggests itself -in a word, taking the initiative - divorces our models from the commonplace. Every little trick and knack of your "exclusive" to-order tailor find expression in the new series of Top Coats which we present for spring service. The fabrics are diversified - covert, tweed, cheviot, vicuna and thibet faint overplaids. Paletots, Paddocks, Tourists,

$25.00 to $40 $20.00 to $40 $20.00 to $35 Silk Lined Coats, $15 in radically new weaves.

such as hair line stripes and

A conservative thirty-eight inch model of fine vicuna in exford or black, lined and the lapels faced with good, serviceable silk. A coat for which our contemporaries count eighteen and twenty dollars a modest price. Saks & Company

Broadway, 33d to 34th Street